

K-LOVE is the only radio station that I listen to, because I do not like the message that is being sent throughout all of the other secular stations. K-LOVE radio helps me to keep a positive attitude even when I am having a bad day. This radio is the only station that keeps me going. I must admit also, if K-LOVE is taken off the air where I live, I won't even listen to the radio anymore. It's not because I am stubborn but it is the only Christian radio station that plays music that I like and encourages.

If K-LOVE were to be taken over by a LPFM broadcaster, like I said before, I would quit listening to the radio. Because K-LOVE is the only radio station that I can listen to in a country that is becoming more secular with each passing day. I would not find any reason to even listen to the radio anymore if K-LOVE was taken away.

One thing that many people don't seem to understand is that Christians are part of the public too! And it is making me very upset to now hear that K-LOVE could possibly be taken away for some LPFM that has the greater possibility of becoming a secular station. There are already enough secular stations out there! Why are people trying to eliminate the few Christian stations that exist? Is it really a crime to be a Christian now-a-days? As a Christian, and a part of the public, K-LOVE is the only radio station where the main reason for the station is to encourage others in a world where there are many difficulties and problems. It would be a shame if something this great were to be taken away.

So please let it remain on the air for those of us, and there are many of us, who need constant encouragement in order to live a life that is influential on many, many people.
